

COOPERS' HALL

DELIGHTFUL PRE-GEORGIAN TOWN HOUSE
WITHIN THE HEART OF THE CITY

Coopers' Hall is a delightful pre-Georgian town house set in Devonshire Square, in the heart of the City.

One of the City's oldest livery halls, dating back from the seventeenth century, Coopers' Hall has elegance, exclusivity and intimacy that is unique to a town house of its period. Available for hire, the Hall has a number of rooms, all flooded by natural sunlight, including a fascinating Museum which honours the craft of cask making.

Chester Boyd creates a sublime culinary experience with wonderful British food with a contemporary twist to give your event the perfect finishing touch.

- EXCLUSIVE, PRIVATE TOWN HOUSE
- TWO MINUTE WALK FROM LIVERPOOL STREET STATION, IN THE HEART OF THE CITY
